

Green Drinks Gainesville

will help raise funds and excitement for

The First Annual

Gainesville Environmental Film and Arts Festival

Wednesday, February 3, 2010

6 - 9 pm

Prairie Creek Lodge

Casual, refreshments, free

Donations will be solicited to support the festival

The Gainesville Environmental Film and Arts Festival is a collaborative effort of the Florida Defenders of the Environment, the Hippodrome State Theatre, and GoGreenNation.org. This festival will engage the community with:

- film, music, dance, poetry, photography and visual art exhibitions
- school-related programs
- community conservation projects
- green business education

The festival will be held March 19 - 28, 2010, presenting ten days of the best in environmental feature films and documentaries, film and environmental workshops, and culminate in an Environmental Fair and free family film at the Bo Diddley Downtown Community Plaza.

To let us know how you'd like to participate, and for more information: EcoFilmFest@gmail.com or call

- Trish Riley -- Film Festival Director; Publisher, GoGreenNation.org: 954-384-9466
- Shirley Lasseter -- Director, Hippodrome Cinema: 352-373-5968
- Nick Williams -- Executive Director, Florida Defenders of the Environment: 352-378-8465

Directions to Prairie Creek Lodge

a meeting and conference eco-lodge owned and operated by Alachua Conservation Trust, Inc.

From the intersection of University Avenue and Main Street in downtown Gainesville:

- Drive east on University Avenue (SR 26) a distance of 1.1 miles; then,
- Veer right onto Hawthorne Road (SR 20) and drive southeast 5.2 miles; then,
- Turn right onto CR 2082 and drive 1.2 miles; then,
- Turn right onto CR 234, cross the Gainesville-Hawthorne Rail Trail, and drive south 0.9 miles; then,
- Turn right at the mailbox labeled "7204", and stay straight on the dirt driveway 0.5 miles through the gate and to the Lodge.

Phones:

Alachua Conservation Trust: (352) 373-1078 [office]
Robert Hutchinson (Director): (352) 256-6043 [cell]
Ivor Kincaide (Land Manager): (352) 377-6253 [cell]

